PREFACE

From the history of the ancestors of Abraham Martin by the late M. G. Weaver, of New Holland, Pa., from their emigration from Switzerland to this country, to the generation which heads this work, the following information was taken:

That in the year 1728, three brothers, David, Henry, and Jacob Martin, emigrated from Switzerland to America, and settled in the Weaverland District, Lancaster Co., Pa. After they had established homes for themselves, their father, Andrew Martin, was also brought over and cared for among them until his death.

His son David had a son George (2nd generation) who had a son Abraham (3rd generation) who begat a son Abraham (4th generation) who was ordained a minister to the Groffdale Church near New Holland, Pa., and who died at the age of 90 years, 3 months, and 4 days and is buried in the Weaverland cemetery. He had a son Abraham (5th generation) who is the progenitor of the following descendants.

Care was taken to gather this information correctly, but errors may be found due to incorrect information to the author or through oversight in copying of the dates.

In respect to the heritage received and maintained by our fathers I submit this brief history for the benefit of their posterity,

A grandson,

John D. Risser.

ABRAHAM MARTIN FAMILY RECORD

Everything has its time. One generation passeth away and another generation cometh.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.—Ps. 90:10.

As for man, his days are as grass: as the flower of the field, so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children; to such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.—Ps. 103:15-18.

Abraham Martin of the 5th generation was born in Salisbury Twp., Lancaster Co., Pa., near Hersheys Church, Aug. 26, 1828; married Sept. 6, 1849, Susan, daughter of Jonas Burkholder. She was born Nov. 8, 1828. To their union was born one son Jonas (see page 4). She died Nov. 17, 1851; aged 23 yr., 9 da.

On Dec. 24, 1852, he married Barbara Wenger, who was born Jan. 30, 1829. In 1867 they emigrated to Washington Co., Md., and a year later settled on a farm which they purchased along the Middleburg Pike, about two miles south of the Mason & Dixon line, now owned by their grandson Amos E. Martin. Here they spent the remainder of their lives when she died Feb. 22, 1906; aged 77 yr. 23 da. He died one year later, Apr. 13, 1907; aged 78 yr. 7 mo. 17 da. Both are buried at the Reiffs Church.
